CLOSER LOOK: Not match strides with I Want Revenge in the Wood Memorial and that was after 'Revenge had that nightmarish start from the gate; Grade 3 stakes winner receives the rail draw, where 12 other Kentucky Derby winners have started from; win-rider Elliott captured the 2004 'Derby with Smarty Jones; expected more 2 races ago when Hold Me Back among others handled him; others appeal more.

Grade 2 stakes winner exchanged decisions with General Quarters in Tampa, then they both ran out of town to capture the Illinois Derby and Blue Grass stakes respectively; got 1st run on Giant Oak in latest, who appeared to be getting to him with every stride; the sireline suggests sprinter and is 1 of 2 runners in the field (Mine That Bird) with at least a 4.00 Dosage Index; would be a surprise.

Full brother to Travers winner Colonel John, who finished 6th in the 2008 Kentucky Derby; by a multiple Breeders' Cup Classic-winning sire; snuck through on the inside late in the Santa Anita Derby when Pioneer of the Nile was gone and he really wasn't any threat to the top two; appears to want to run all day, but may be an even better Belmont Stakes candidate.

Last-to-1st-winner of the Lexington Stakes, his record on synthetic surfaces is impressive; has tons to prove for today's conventional dirt start after being outrun vs. much lesser than this in the Sunland Derby; win-rider Gomez sides with Pioneer of the Nile, who landed in front of him during their 2-year-old campaign.

Lanes End winner has a lot to prove on conventional dirt surfaces, noting his Remsen as a 2-year-old vs. Atomic Rain; has the benefit of jockey Desormaux, who seeks his 4th Kentucky Derby-winning ride ('08 Big Brown, 2000 Fusaichi Pegasus, '98 Real Quiet); his dramatic late runs this year would suggest the Derby distance is right up his alley; mixed feelings.

Louisiana Derby hero has been freshened up 7 weeks since that easy victory in the slop; brilliant workout at Churchill Downs 5 days ago; the defection of some of the other speed runners figures to leave this guy with a great tactical advantage over many of the others; sired by a Belmont Stakes winner and out of a G1 dam (410K), he is bred for success; the long vacation is the slight concern stretching out from a mile and a sixteenth; appears to be a dangerous rival from bell to finish; appears the one to beat.

Terrific ride by Bejarano in the Arkansas Derby as he watched Old Fashioned carve out the hot fractions, while he sat in stalking position before reeling the favorite in; he is out of a Grade 1 dam (187K); certainly belongs with this group, finishing 2nd to both Friesan Fire and Pioneer of the Nile, defeating I Went Revenge on a synthetic surface; handled dirt nicely at Oaklawn Park; will be using in the exotics.

4 wins on synthetic surfaces, he was unable to last at a shorter distance test in 2009; an ambitious placement to say the least; 5.40 Dosage Index is the highest in the field; sire captured the Belmont Stakes and Travers; new rider won the Derby in 2007 with Street Sense; could be a pace factor, but is hard to recommend.

Eligible for n1x allowance conditions, he faded vs. General Quarters among others in the Blue Grass and could not last the trip vs. Musket Man at a mile and sixteenth; appears to be a prime candidate to set the pace in this event and perhaps help the closers if he presses it along quickly enough; know him early, unsure about late.

Upset Desert Party in latest, his Churchill Downs workouts have been terrific off the 5-week freshening; won on the lead traveling 7 furlongs to commence career and figures to be a pace factor here; I guess one of these days the U A E Derby may become the preeminent Kentucky Derby prep race, but until that time comes, have to consider others.

The dawdling pace of the Santa Anita Derby had him a lot closer to the pace than what he probably likes; with a legitimate pace in the Kentucky Derby and with ultra patient Mike Smith riding (2005 Giacomo), he figures to be in the bottom half of the field early, then come with that big explosive late run, which wasn't big enough to handle Pioneer of the Nile on 2 different occasions; outstanding workout over the track for his conventional dirt debut; view as an exotics possibility.

Shown that perhaps the 102 Beyer speed figure earned in the Sam Davis was legitimate as he scored in the Blue Grass Stakes to produce graded stakes victories on both natural dirt and synthetic surfaces; he does throw in a few clunkers from time to time, but clearly appears capable of upsetting these on his best day; using on deepest of exotic tickets.
