CLOSER LOOK: His connections remove the hood in an attempt to control the speed he showed in wiring the 7 panel Swale prior to having his number taken down; he's probably the quickest of these early, but he's won both of his two turn tries from tracking spots and that gives Velazquez options from this beneficial draw; would normally be dead set against endorsing the offspring of his speedy sire at this 9.5 panel trip, but this guy should have every shot to prove he's good enough in here.

Last season's Canadian Juvenile Champion ran away from the Kentucky Derby field at 50-1 in an effort that was head and shoulders above anything he'd run before; Derby winning rider Borel opts to pilot Rachel Alexandra and past Preakness winner Mike Smith(1993 on Prairie Bayou) takes the call; while Borel got a lot of credit for his rail skimming ride at Churchill, it's tough to overlook the burst this horse set forth to pass more than half the field in the lane; off the effort it's hard to fathom he'll just fade back into obscurity, but he'll still have to prove he can run as well over a dry strip, should that be the case in this one.

Had some trouble in the Kentucky Derby, but still ran a big one, all things considered; he's another who has outrun his pedigree and he should appreciate the slight cut back in distance and he draws a nice post from which to work out a ground saving trip; bullet interim drill at the shore says the Derby effort took little out of him and he should once again offer value on the tote; one to consider.

Tenth time tried to be the charm for a wet track for a colt who broke his maiden over a wet track on the Kentucky Derby undercard; his connections pick a tough spot in which to try winners for the initial time and though he did improve in his last, he'd need to take a much bigger step forward to have a shot to even contend for a minor placing in here; overmatched. It was a bit of a surprise to see this guy sent off as the chalk after morning line favorite I Want Revenge was scratched due to injury on the morning of the Kentucky Derby and he responded by doing very little running after encountering some trouble; he'd been idle for 7 weeks prior to that one and considering the way he worked here the other day, maybe he's just tighter with the 10 furlong effort behind him; quite capable of bouncing back with a big one, but note that his big figure Louisiana Derby win did come over a wet track; contender. Skipped the Kentucky Derby after failing to hit the board in the Blue Grass and he'll get a rider switch to Rose who won this heat's 2005 renewal with Afleet Alex; while this late runner has a right to be better in his third start of the year, he has some improving to do as he's yet to run a number even close to what it would take to factor in this one and there's lots of bold type in his most recent company lines.

He was right there on the wire in the Kentucky Derby with a couple of the guys he'll catch again here and could easily have earned second money; he's another who should like the slightly shorter trip over a track that traditionally favors runners near the early lead; big win over a dry strip in the Arkansas Derby says that he's a serious threat to turn the tables on those who finished in front of him last time. Local hope gets a switch to the Kid who was aboard two Preakness winners (Big Brown last year and Real Quiet in 1998); he's been on the front end in his most recent tries, but don't think it's realistic to expect he'll make the lead from out here; he picks up a significant amount of weight off the decent Tesio effort and appears to have a rather difficult task ahead of him.

Super filly has been installed as the 8-5 chalk while stepping in to try the boys in her first start for these new connections; it's certainly a testament to her immense talent that Borel chose to abandon the Kentucky Derby winner in her favor and her Kentucky Oaks performance, though she didn't beat all that much, was an impressive sight; the outside draw should keep her out of trouble and it presents Borel with options as she's been successful both on the lead and from stalking range; won't be easy beating males and if she goes off anywhere near her morning line price she won't provide much value, but she has to be respected as a serious talent. -Steve Grabowski
