CLOSER LOOK: Beyers going in the right direction, he made the super wide middle move to reach contention in the Spiral and then just kept going; slow to take to the Turfway surface last, he finally got to handling the surface, and was aggressive after about an 8th of a mile; Breen is a very good horsemen and he has this runner attempting to do what Animal Kingdom did in parlaying the Spiral to Derby success; he stalked to no avail in the only poor effort but it's never easy to beat winners right back anyway; there is brilliance if you go far enough in the pedigree as you'll find BC Sprint winner and near $900,000 earner Desert Stormer; he was not exactly

flattered by the Rebel show horse who returned to pro	ess and fade to 10th; needs very bes	t.	·				. ,	,	·

Three poor posts in a row and the trip last time was far from ideal; tough beat to the stablemate in the Rebel and he had to weave his way through traffic last time; the only race he extended in was the LeComte and not sure he was beating anybody that day; pedigree screams distance on both sides as his sire won the Breeder' Cup Classic and Oxbow's full brother Awesome Patriot won a stakes at 9 furlongs when he lost a length and a quarter in the lane when recording a 97 Beyer; needs a rebound run.

Mugged in his debut, was hung wide from his marooned slot next out and then was a tad short in his first try at a mile; he exploded recording the 102 Beyer to graduate, showed agility taking the Withers and his Louisiana Derby win was flattered when Departing returned to win the Illinois Derby; sire and dam both won Grade 1 races and earned over $2 million combined; half brother Tafaseel was Grade 2 placed and won at 9 furlongs; and if the track is off, this guy has the blood to handle the off going; colt has had the lead or been right there at the top of the lane in three of 6 in his career and 47 of the last 50 Derby winners have been 1st of 2nd with a furlong left; on the 27th, he galloped out in 1:00.58; Borel looking for 4th Derby win; respect.

Zero for 3 this year but he does figure to be closing; place horse 12/30 returned to hold on by a neck in his maiden breaker but then was out of the money twice; half bro Quintons Gold Rush won the Lexington but was eased at 51-1 in a sloppy Kentucky Derby next out in 2004; kin I Testify won 16 times and did cash in a cheap claimer at 9 furlongs but was never asked to run this far; decent drill on the 26th when he galloped out in 1:14 2/5 and his trainer was pleased, Stewart; He did it very easy. I really liked the way he galloped out. He finished the last eighth with his ears up in the work, then looked like when he got into the turn, he finished off nicely; will be in the picture late if at all.

Talented, but he has only won once; he proved he was the real deal in the Remsen he closed into the slow pace getting the last furlong in the Wood in :12.20; rider Castellano had a choice between this guy and Revolutionary and ends up here; super move of :58.89 on the 27th as he finished the last quarter in :24 and galloped out in 1:12.13; some figure the Risen Star was just a bad prep but not according to Verrazano's trainer, Pletcher: I think Normandy Invasion's race was sneaky good. We keep looking and every kind of speed figure shows it was a fast, big number race; this guy's trainer like the Wood too, Brown: I don't see any reason why a mile and a quarter third off the layoff shouldn't hit him between the eyes.

Off slowly in his debut here last year; colt ran like a short horse in his comeback effort in the Risen Star; 3 clear while nearly ringing the bell at 19-1 last time; talented Napravnik was up for the last score and this guy did work super on the 21st; normally not eager to drill, that workout was tied with a couple of runners including Officer Alex, who took a stakes last year and also won the $75K Bachelor on April 6; and the best drill on 4/21 of :47 was posted by stakes placed Smitten; in the move on the 27th he posted sluggish early splits and galloped out when shut down; distance a concern, but Amoss knows what to do with a good horse.

Both of the wins came against Empire-breds and he had the legit excuse of the off going in the only poor effort; far from disgraced in his Graded stakes debut, and he was coming back on a bit late; players can make a case that he will sit a nice stalk and pounce journey today for serious horseman Dutrow; this classic distance may be pushing the envelope; the most successful sibling did run second at 9 furlongs beaten a neck but that runner had a length and a half lead with a furlong to run; still, runner just might be the bomb in the exacta or trifecta today.

O'Neill hoping for that deja vu moment and consecutive Derby wins; 4th finisher in the Sham, returned to win an allowance race at Sunland Park and then took the $120,000 Mine That Bird; could have been a bit short in the San Felipe; he came home the last 8th last time in :13.04 compared to :12.42 for I'll Have Another in 2012; the 105 SA Derby Beyer was 11 points higher than last year's victor; connections think this runner can settle but there is not much zip inside of him so options are there as the race unfolds; consistent and dangerous.

Near $400,000 purchase has much more speed than he just showed; his talent surfaced in the Futurity last September and he built on it with a game Remsen win; hung wide from the marooned slot in the Gotham, he made a nice middle move to get within a neck of the lead at the top of the lane in last and then just kept going; the concern is he came home slow last time; the final three furlongs was run in :39.37 and the final time was 2.27 seconds slower than older horses ran in the Oaklawn Handicap 2 races before the Ark Derby; his last race was on the soft side; runner has the blood to star as kin to Grade 1 winner and over $300K earner Meadow Breeze; 3 weeks since his last race and Pletcher has had success with that kind of spacing in the past.

They were all on the line in the Blue Grass and that is not always the best of signs; he lost focus that day when distracted by tractor tracks and he was switching leads in the final furlong; runner had a horrible trip in the Louisiana Derby when blocked with traffic surrounding him in the stretch of that race and never got a chance to roll; sired by two-time Horse of the Year who could run all day, his dam won several routes on grass including a stakes; could easily envision him getting a nice stalking trip; too sharp to ignore.

Wide from the marooned slot in his other race in the states; in the UAE Derby, this guy was forwardly placed from the sound of the bell, he made the lead and went to drifting a bit, may have been passed briefly by eventual second finisher, but he re-focused and won nicely; Aidan O'Brien has won nearly every huge race in Europe and multiple Breeders' Cup races; runner's sire brought us Fountain of Youth winner Soldat and also Declaration of War, who has won at a mile and quarter on turf and the synthetic; winning dam is a half-sister to Dynaformer, who went on to sire Barbaro; wild card rates upset glance.

Colt's stalk and pounce style will allow him to maintain contact and still get first run on the deep closers; nothing wrong with being battle tested and he has only run one poor race when wide at Delta; the raw talent is there, but winning at a mile and a sixteenth and a mile and a quarter are two different universes and he has to prove he can transfer his good Florida form; mile drill on the 18th figures to help his bottom but this trip could be pushing the envelope; if one figures that last race, off a 2-month layoff, was just something he needed, then one could make a case for him to be in the thick of it turning for home; tactical speed may be his best asset.

He's lost ground in the lane in every race this year but still continues to try; runner seems best when sent along and if he is intent on the lead, he might be challenged every step of the way; the drill on the 26th was a tick faster than move posted by Balance of Power, who is a double winner but was crushed in an $100K OP stakes on 4/13 and is also trained by Terranova; sire won the 9-furlong Grade 1 Haskell and was also second in the Kentucky Derby when 2nd at the top of the lane but beaten by 2 and three quarters by Smarty Jones; dam won twice, both sprints; all four siblings won but they were all just sprinters; could see him muddling the pace, not sure he'll be around at the end.

This unbeaten tries to become the 8th runner in history to win this race without a defeat; he bobbed a bit in the Tampa Bay Derby and he got a solid 2-hole trip in the Wood when losing a bit of ground late but also not being asked for his all and running the final furlong in :12.55; solid drill on the 27th when he galloped out in 1:12.92 should have him on edge; youngster is out of a non-winning dam but that dam is kin to a pair of Grade 2 winners and Verrazano's half brother El Padrino won a Grade 2 going a mile and a sixteenth and was also 4th in the Florida Derby; sire known as a sprinter but has sired runners that have won up to a mile and a half; the draw is ideal with no speed outside of him and he should fall into super trip.

The first thing he has to prove is that he can win on dirt; consistency is one of his best assets as he has only failed to fire once in his career when between runners early; he does have a chance to take to this surface; full sister Pat's Kitten took a maiden $12.5K claimer on this surface going a mile and a sixteenth and class may come from full brother Queen 'splatekitten, who took a stakes and banked nearly $400K; who exactly has he been beating?; he was not flattered by any means when the horse he beat on Jan. 20 by a length returned to run 6th of 10 in a Grade 3 event; this guy has to pick it up.

Peaking runner wide in maiden breaker, in tight but successful in the first try vs. winners and he beat the previously unbeaten Grade 1 winner Violence 2/23; he is the only contender in the field with a trio of two-turn wins; bred for distance on top as his sire has sired successful major winners at a mile and a quarter like Life and Ten and Funny Moon; his dam won at a mile and half on turf and her sire won the 1990 Derby and the BC Classic; training for this race, you want horses to be able to finish and on the 21st; he got the last quarter in : 23 4/5 and galloped out an 8th in : 12 1/5; should be right there when the smoke clears.

Versatile runner has cut it close in both of his wins vs. winners; toss the Southwest as he could not stand up on the sloppy surface; nice try in the Smarty Jones considering the post and he did show some grit considering the traffic last time, like the mile drills Lukas has put into him since the Rebel and he knows better than most that the last furlong can be grueling; class is all over his pedigree as he's kin to Take Charge Indy, who won the Grade 1 Florida Derby and banked over $800,000; timing and the trip will be everything for this runner.

$50,000 purchase started career fine, but he has had issues; he grabbed a quarter 1/26 and he also has had a throat ulcer issue; it may be a case of putting it all together at the right time; somebody had to run second last time and he did lose some ground in the lane; he not only won here but he ran his eyeballs out in defeat in the Grade 2 here to close 2012; rates as a surprise package; his trainer has confidence; after third race, he had this to say on Brisnet, McPeek: If he improves the way I expect him to, we've got a big chance to be in the middle of a lot of nice races. I think this horse has got a good a chance as any horse I've had in my career.

Despite being Grade 1 placed, he was disrespected on the board in the Tampa race but proved it was no fluke getting up at Keeneland; Strike the Gold was the last Blue Grass winner to win this race in 1991; Tampa effort was also validated by Verrazano's Wood score; War came home the last 3 furlongs in the Blue Grass in a solid: 37.51; the concern is he can be his own worst enemy since he walks out of the gate at times; with his style, he is at the mercy of a suicide pace and then hope he can find a lane to rally into in time; and his poor dirt effort came here; with clear sailing, he figures to be coming hard.

Gelding was game in the Jerome and he showed a new wrinkle in the Gotham before drawing off to win going away; beaten on the square last time as he had dead aim and just could not quicken; he exited the Wood with a lung infection and got some time in a hyperbaric chamber at Fair Hill; the infection could have hindered him in the Wood or possibly, the stress of the competition may have induced the problem; in his 1:00 2/5 drill on the 26th under trainer Rodriguez, runner was under stick urging and was coaxed till the end; the classic blood is there as if you go deep enough in the pedigree the third dam dropped over $500,000 winner Miss Slewpy, who won at 10 furlongs; expect rider to be aggressive from this post.

Colt cashed off the claim but has only been in the money twice since and far back each of those times; at least he has won locally; class is there on the bottom side as this guy's winning dam is kin to near $650,000 earner and proven router Adhrhythm; in the clever hands of Mike Maker, considering the big field and this runner's closing style, he could be left with too much to do turning for home if scratches are kind. -Brian Mulligan
