CLOSER LOOK: Rosario let him settle in the Derby and didn't rush and that was one of the keys to victory; proven on fast and off surfaces and able to adapt to the fast Derby pace but was also closer to the lead in the slower pace of the Florida Derby; 5 of the last 11 Kentucky Derby winners won the Preakness; splits of the Monday drill included a first quarter in :12.21, and he got his final quarter in :23.12, his trainer about the move, Shug; It thought it was freaky. It didn't look like he got out of a high gallop. It gave me chills, That's what good horses do; Gary Stevens was impressed with runner's Derby as told to Steve Haskin, Stevens: Orb was still a fresh horse after the race, and the reason I know that is, he wasn't looking to pull up; repeater.

This guy ran better than appears in last as he got caught up in the fast splits when Palace Malace was loose on the lead, and the whole complexion of the race changed; the first contender to show up here runner tries duplicate what Louis Quatorze did in 1996 when 16th in the Derby but a winner in this race; expect huge effort; trainer O'Neill in the Courier-Journal, O'Neill: We're still scratching out head on how the Derby unfolded. I think he just didn't enjoy the kickback, the slop and where he was. Kevin (Krigger) did a great job. When Palace Malice flew out of there, there was no sense in chasing him. It just wasn't his day. I think the (Preakness') shorter distance, and we'll just take the approach of 'come and get us'.

By now most know this runner is part owned by former Green Bay Packers Paul Horning and Willie Davis and he will be running for the end zone from the sound of the bell with his natural :45 flat speed; wide in his first two starts, he has only run one poor race when out in post 10 in this Grade 2 debut; runner is bred to run till the cows come home as his sire Tiznow won the Breeders Cup Classic twice and his dam won multiple Group races in South American and also won the Grade 2 Rampart at Gulfstream in 2005 at 9 furlongs; with others runners in here with designs on the lead, just not sure the race sets up all that great for this colt.

Runner figures to throw his hat into the speed brigade ring; game in the maiden breaker, did finish the last furlong in :12.58 in New Mexico; the place horse in last didn't exactly flatter this runner by finishing 11th of 14 in Departing's Illinois Derby; go deep into runner's pedigree and fans will find Silverbulletday, a champion and over $3 million career; some snappy moves at Churchill including the drill last Monday; Jim Barnes, Bob Baffert assistant, sent this guy 6 furlongs and he galloped out in 1:24 4/5; he worked in company with stablemate Fed Biz, an older horse who is a Grade 2 winner; Barnes: Bob told me to give him a stiff work. That looked like a stiff work to me. He was under urging to keep up; needs very best.

Name didn't fit last time as he may have just hated the off going; raw talent is there, but he has to prove he can transfer his good Florida form; the pace was moderate in the Florida Derby but runner still gave it up in the lane; in the drill last Sunday between races at Monmouth Park, this charge was timed in :23.40 the final quarter of a mile and his trainer had him galloping out in :59.60; only 2 and a half off the lead in the slop last time but he really didn't seem to want to go on; could see him sitting in a good spot when the real racing belongs, it will just be a matter if he can out battle some more accomplished runners. -Brian Mulligan
