He hasn't won past 1 Mile yet and his Florida Derby where he lacked the finishing kick does not bode well for 1 Mile and a quarter; expect him to race midpack as his 2 uncoupled barnmates are likely to break better from the inside; reportedly was not training as well in Kentucky as he was in Florida earlier this year.

The prospects for a wet track are not very good and he would be a major player off the Rebel-off track score if track came up soggy; according to DRF clockers he has handled the CD oval very well; long drought since a Derby winner did not race at least once as a 2-year-old; the image of California Chrome running him off his feet in the SA Derby suggests he might be ranked a notch below the top contenders on fast footing.

Is another who did not do much on that speed-favoring GP strip in the Fountain of Youth then went on to win a G3 and earned a spot here by chasing Dance With Fate on synthetic; style suggests the added distance will help the cause but has a lot to prove on dirt.

Had the misfortune of closing into a race with a lone-speed runner but that scenai is unlikely to occur for this; 1st-time Johnny V is always a good-win angle; Risen Star-winner Smith goes to Hoppertunity; his closing kick would seem to fit today's classic distance while he has been working sharply on the CD oval and has been full of himself all week; the pick.

Bumped with California Chrome out of the gate in the SA Derby then was within contention at the quarter pole but was run off his feet by the likely-Derby betting choice; he has worked extremely well at CD for this seeking the rematch; perhaps a cleaner start will help him turn the tables; others appeal more.

The way he rallied in the middle of the track for his Wood Memorial victory would think breaking widest may not hurt his chances any; he's been very good in New York but in races elsewhere he was a non factor; the 104 Beyer came out of nowhere but makes him a major player if can repeat that effort; the 2-back winner made it 3-for-3 in the Florida Derby (99 Beyer).
