CLOSER LOOK: Not the way you wanted to see the 2-year-old champion come into the Derby as he was a no-excuse 4th in the SA Derby fading badly after being pressured by Baeza; his last 3 wins were produced when he made the lead by himself so hopes to clear off early here and perhaps gain some confidence; 1986 was the last time the 1 post (Ferdinand) won this event.

Pace presence with both wins when forwardly placed with the latest score 3-back in the slop right on the lead; hard to make a case for him to turn the tables on Sovereignty who ran him down in last 2 at shorter; he held on well in the Florida Derby to hit the board but have him ranked below the top contenders.

The good news is he is a deep closer who can save ground then make 1 run into a projected hotly-contested pace; the concern is he makes his 1st dirt start in the Kentucky Derby; 25-point Beyer speed figure increase for his JR Steaks last to 1st win; post ed 4 workouts on CD dirt for this but none entice enough to back in this spot.

It's Baffert which is often enough for most bettors on the 1st Saturday in May with 6 Derby wins; benefitted from being lone speed in the Wood Memorial as both wins were produced when he raced right on the lead; this field is top heavy with other gate sp eed which compromises his gate-to-wire hopes.

That was the type of eye-catching win you love to see coming into the Derby; main concern is he is 1 of 8 to have raced on CD dirt fading vs. maidens at much shorter when last seen over the track; sat just off the 6-5 favorite in last, dueled with that one then pulled away with authority setting the CNL track record; Lukas has 4 Derby wins.

Set a pressured pace in the UAE Derby at the Preakness distance; he looked like he had no chance of hanging on in deep stretch as he was headed but came right back along the rail to score; the main issue is he has gate speed in a race packed with suspect-early speed; know him early then hopes to hang on late.

Favored in all 6 starts this Kentucky bred sire by the 2015 Triple Crown winner has raced exclusively in Japan; he has a nice closing kick which fits well in a field loaded with suspect gate speed; obviously the competition level he has faced is the con cern; Japan-bred Forever Young finished 3rd in the Derby in 2024.

Just may be a KEE horse for the course as his 2 biggies were over that surface; major-pace presence has done his best work when winging on the front end; could not have had an easier lead in the Blue Grass; showed some heart to hang on in deep stretch but hard to rank him ahead of Burnham Square off that effort; seems up against it as we have a ton of other early zip signed on for this.

Maiden is 1 of 2 sired by the 2015 Triple Crown winner; it's 1st-time Irad Ortiz Jr usually a good-win angle but the Eclipse rider is 8-0-0-0 in the Kentucky Derby and his trainer is 0-for-26 in the Derby; late runner is 1 of 8 to have raced on CD dirt as he could not break into the exactas vs MSW company over the track.

Saved best for last when stretching out to longest ever as his late running LAD Derby score sets him up well for this facing a field loaded with suspect gate speed; defeated the show finisher from last who Beyered 91 in a next-out OP-200K stakes win; would have to avenge losses to many of these to upset.

Disappointing Arkansas Derby as 1-Mile and 1-8 seemed a little too much for him as he rallied into a hot pace but could not hold off Sandman unable to sustain that late kick; beat the 3-back show finisher who posted a 70 Beyer speed figure in a next-out OP-150K stakes win then an 86 capturing a TP-250K event.

Put it all together at 1M and 1-8 as the Hall of Fame trainer is back with a Derby starter for the 1st time in 4 years; his huge closing kick fits very well here in a race loaded with gate speed; the issue here is his lack of prior success on CD dirt pos ting the 3 lowest Beyer speed figures of career in his 3 losses over the track.

Breaking his maiden with a huge late kick in a Grade 3 stakes on CD dirt as a 2-year-old stamped that he would be a major player for this; tons of suspect gate speed signed on benefits; style suggests he will love 1 Mile and 1-4; big late rallies in his Florida wins really putting in into gear in deep stretch of an eye-catching Fountain of Youth win; he followed the winner in the Florida Derby runner-up finish; not sure if he is better than the winner who unfortunately was injured and is not here which helps his win chances.

Tough call after seeing him press East Avenue for the lead with every chance to win last poking his head in front at the top of the stretch but then faded to beat 1 runner home; back on CD dirt which was the surface of his maiden breaker being 1 of 3 to have won over the track; pace presence in a field top heavy with suspect gate speed with his latest win on the lead 2-back.
