CLOSER LOOK: Adds to what figures to be a hot pace as his last 2 wins were gate to wire and was ultra impressive 4 weeks ago in the front running Tesio; there is no shortage of other gate speed signed on which is the concern as he takes his 3-for-3 LRL dirt record to the gate making his graded stakes debut in a Grade 1; maybe we will see a style change as his debut win was a late kick from 6th; would help if he sits just off the speed; beat the debut show finisher who graduated next out with a 69 Beyer.

1 of 3 to exit the Kentucky Derby; since the blinkers were removed his 2 losses in the Wood and Kentucky Derby have bolstered this maiden's resume; the good news is he should work out a great trip saving ground then making 1 run behind what is projected to be a hot pace; seems the one to beat.

Out-dued OP stakes runners as this fast developing 3YO seemed to love the added yardage to 9F in last while firing his best without Lasix; main issue is his front running style in a field loaded with other gate speed as he makes his graded stakes debut seemingly making this a very ambitious placement.

Thought he might be a major pace presence as 1 of 3 to exit the Kentucky Derby entered but as you would expect from widest post 18 he lost ground every step of the way; raced mid-pack 2 weeks ago in the Derby but faded; this race is loaded with gate speed too making his upset dreams a lot tougher to make a reality; beat the 3-back show finisher who Beyered 100 in a next-out SA Derby score.

Wish we saw more stamina as he lost ground from stretch to finish in his last 3 losses; today is 1st time Irad Ortiz Jr which is always a plus exiting a new Beyer Top when up-close early in the Blue Grass but was no match for the KEE loving winner; he is 0-for-4 since the neck win 1st-time out; super KEE work 1 week ago adds to the appeal.

Snapped the 2-for-2 New York win streak exiting a career-low Beyer speed figure when faltering on the lead in the Wood Memorial with today's added half furlong seeming a benefit to the others; capable on best; 3-back is a co-field-best Beyer; difficult t o rank ahead of Ocelli who rallied by him in last then finished 3rd in the Kentucky Derby; 2-back key race winner and show finisher Beyered 100-90 in next-out G1 Florida Derby and AQU-150K stakes triumphs.
